

A Quicker Path to Developing Your CFO Skills

CFO.UNIVERSITY COACHING PROGRAM

What is the CFO.University Coaching Program?

A professional development package that respects your time while increasing your value and the value of your business.

Our Coaching program includes:

- A review and discussion of your CFO Readiness Assessment and current business challenges.
- A Personal Professional Development Plan based on the Assessment above.
- A monthly discussion with a CFO.University Coach to help you tackle your toughest problems.
- Access to your Coach during the month for issues that can't wait until the scheduled discussion.

How to access the Coaching Program:

Step 1: Visit www.CFO.University to determine if our development model fits you:

- The Defining Attributes of a Successful CFO - a four-part series
- Our Courses on Accounting, Finance, Treasury and Leadership
- Our Tools that help solve CFO-Centric issues through focused, big picture analysis

Step 2: Take the CFO Readiness Assessment™ to measure the Four Pillars (four primary proficiencies) that drive the success of Chief Financial Officers.

You will receive a personalized report tailored for you!

Step 3: Join the program by contacting Steve - Steve.Rosvold@CFO.University or Andy - Andy.Burrows@SuperchargedFinance.com

Step 4: We will follow up with you to create your Professional Development Plan and schedule our monthly calls.
